Best Selling Author, Motivational Speaker, Blogger, Afterlife Expert

Josie Varga is the best-selling author of Visits from Heaven.

The author of several books, she has been called “an angel who has taken human form.” A former magazine editor and communications consultant, her life changed course when she received a validated dream message from a man who died in the September 11th attacks on the World Trade Center.

Forever transformed by her experience, she embarked on a spiritual journey as she vowed to help others understand that life truly never ends and love never dies. Life, she says, is eternal and so are we.

Dedicated and passionate about her research into metaphysics and the afterlife, she is a sought-after blogger and motivational speaker. She has a popular group on Facebook for people to share their spiritual experiences and find comfort in knowing that they are not alone. With several other projects in the works, she is recently a television pilot based on her book, Visits From Heaven.

Josie lives in Westfield, New Jersey.
